At Ascension Alliance, LLC, we believe that being a part of your growth journey is an opportunity regardless of whether or not it is personal or professional. Our services are not intended to be cost prohibitive or create a limitation on access to our support. Our team will work with you directly to develop the best approach to bringing our support to the forefront. This information is designed to assist you in making a decision to best support your needs. We would be happy to work with you directly by email or telephone.

*Single sessions are not discounted and are priced for the value of the session. Promo codes are available, if applicable. Monthly packages are recurring charges for the first 3 months with the option for renewal after initial term. Cost savings built into package price. Bulk sessions offer the most cost savings of all of the plans with the flexibility of booking as needed within a specified timeframe.
